

Station # 1 Scenario

Your team has been called to the production level of the mine. George, the superintendent of B crew arrived at the production level to gather the load counts. George was walking up to Sam's LHD when he collapsed to the ground. He is unconscious.

Treat George.

There is no time limit for this scenario.

Each team member will have drawn for a number and will know which skill in which to perform.